

MID-VALLEY LITERACY CENTER

AUGUST NEWSLETTER 2025

Some wonderful MVLC
volunteers and tutors!

Thank you for attending
our Summer Picnic!

Grilled hotdogs, live music, cornhole, even a dunk tank! Our annual summer picnic was a hit in the heat! We loved gathering as an MVLC community to celebrate the hard work of our tutors and students.

Mark your calendars

Hits & Giggles Golf Tournament!

Join us as we celebrate a decade of

Thank you to community grants that support the work of MVLC!

Meet the MVLC Staff!

Michele Griffin-Campione
Executive Director

MVLC is thrilled to welcome Michele as our new Executive Director! She brings experience in leadership, development, and fundraising. We are thankful for her warmth and vision. The future of MVLC looks bright!

Kaylee Causey
Bookkeeper/Office Coordinator
Kaylee has served as the MVLC Bookkeeper and Office Coordinator since 2022. She knows how to keep the office organized while also keeping things light. MVLC is blessed to have her!

Myriam Navarro
Student and Tutor Coordinator

Myriam joined our staff in December of 2024, and we are so glad she did! Her warmth, wonderful people skills, and bilingual abilities add richly to the front desk experience.

Anna Benjamin
Development Coordinator
Previously a 2021 summer intern, Anna returned as MVLC staff in December, this time with a bigger role in events and grant writing. She loves the diverse community MVLC serves!

Maya Lucero-Romero
Student and Tutor Coordinator
A recent graduate of Willamette University, Maya brings amazing attention to detail and bilingual skills to the front desk. We are thrilled to have Maya on our team!

Mercedes Comstock
Social Media Intern
Currently a student at Corban University majoring in Marketing, Mercedes brings a knowledge of trends, an eye for design, and even some Gen Z humor to our team. Keep an eye out for her posts!
